USAID ADMINSITRATOR MARK GREEN TRAVELS TO AFRICA & MIDDLE EAST

TO DISCUSS THE EBOLA OUTBREAK

Paris, Zanzibar, 19.08.2019, 01:04 Time

USPA NEWS - U.S. Agency for International Development (USAID) Administrator Mark Green will travel to the Democratic Republic of the Congo, Israel, and Nigeria August 16-August 24, 2019. The Administrator will meet with government and civil-society partners to discuss the response to the Ebola outbreak and highlight partnerships and investments across the U.S. Government that save lives, strengthen citizen-responsive democratic governance, and help people emerge from humanitarian crises. Administrator Green will also visit USAID-funded programs related to economic empowerment, resilience, food security, and global health security that are helping reduce the impact of ongoing humanitarian emergencies, reduce intercommunal conflict, and promote a path to self-reliance.
