The GPKSC Chairman continued as saying “Pakistan is the only center of hopes and aspirations of the people of Jammu and Kashmir, who, he underlined, had unequivocally decided to determine their destiny with this country 73 years ago through the historic unanimous resolution of October 19, 1947 in a Kashmiri Muslims representative congregation in Srinagar.

Raja Sikander said that valiant people of Jammu & Kashmir were giving the supreme sacrifices of their lives for the achievement of the destination, which was determined by our (Kashmiris) elders 73 years ago.

“We want the early peaceful solution of the Jammu & Kashmir issue which can only be possible with the involvement of entire wishes and aspirations of the people of Jammu & Kashmir”, he declared.

Raja Sikander categorically said that no power on earth could deprive the Jammu Kashmir people of their birth right to decide about their destiny. By laying down the supreme sacrifices of their lives since over last 7 decades, the Jammu & Kashmir people have proved that their spirit of freedom was non-conquerable and the struggle for liberation of the motherland from India's forced and unlawful rule would continue till a single Kashmiri was alive.

The GPKSC Chairman said that it was ample proof of the fact that hearts of the people of Pakistan and Jammu and Kashmir beat in unison.

Addressing the speakers including President of the organization Kala Khan thanked everyone for participating the Kashmir Solidarity day and also mentioned that we will be launching a petition on 28th February for the British Government for the right of self determination of Indian Occupied Kashmiris and we need the Pakistani/Kashmiri diaspora to sign the petition so that once we get one hundred signatures-than it will come compulsory for the British government to have a debate at the British House of Parliament .

The President GPKSC AJK wing Syed Shabbir Ahmed said that Pakistani/Kashmiris in Pakistan and in rest of the world on 5th February show their solidarity and support with great enthusiasm and devotion every year to renew pledge to continue struggle till achieving right to self-determination.

The Mayor of Slough Ch Mohammad Nazir also supported the Kashmir Solidarity day with great enthusiasm and said he will continue to support the innocent people of illegally Indian Occupied Kashmir until they are given their freedom.
