SAID: Have A Winning Mentality

I am cognizant that the details of our circumstances may be different, however my matric story has taught me to believe the following:

- * If you are alive, the dream is alive!
- * It does not matter how you got into the deep end; it is your responsibility to make it to the shore. Therefore, do everything in your power, God will do the rest.
- * Take the good with the bad; it all works together for good at the end.
- * Life does not necessarily get easy we get better. So, get better!
- * Do not let a bad start, or a bad year, or even a decade to determine the outcome of your life.
- * Your life does not have to be defined by a bad experience or crisis, as they say, tough people last longer than tough times.
