THE STORY :

Heartwarming tale of haute couture, based on the classic novel by Paul Gallico. In this official collaboration with the House of Dior, Mrs. Harris Goes to Paris weaves the tale of a widowed cleaner who falls madly in love with a beautiful Dior creation that she simply must own. After suddenly receiving a war-widow's pension, Ada (Lesley Manville) travels to Paris to do so. She stumbles into a showing of Dior's 10th anniversary collection and is befriended by André (Lucas Bravo), the Dior accountant, and Natasha (Alba Baptista), a Dior model. However, the Dior director, Claudine (isabelle Huppert), resents Ada's intrusion into the exclusive world of haute couture.

Dior has fallen on hard financial times, and, because Ada will pay in cash, they reluctantly agree to make her a dress. When Claudine is forced to fire several Dior's workers for financial reasons, Ada organises a strike and forces Claudine and Christian Dior to hear André's ideas to modernise and make the business profitable....
